Welcome Message

Dear colleagues and friends,

It is my great pleasure as the president to invite you to attend "Asia Pacific Conference of Speech, Language and Hearing 2015" (APCSLH 2015) to be held during Oct 9-11, 2015 in Guangzhou, China.

As a biennial international event organized by Asia Pacific Society of Speech, Language and Hearing (APSSLH) (<http://www.apsslh.org>), the 2015 conference will be the first time to be held in China mainland, hosted by Jinan University. With the theme of "Education, Research and Clinical Service: Within and Beyond Asia and the Pacific", APCSLH 2015 will focus on the issues of training, research, and practice of the speech, language and hearing science within and beyond the Asia Pacific Rim, benefiting more people with speech, language and hearing disorders.

There are some important conferences held concurrently with the APCSLH 2015, including "The Speech, Language and Hearing Forum in Mandarin Chinese 2015", "The 7th Asia Pacific Education Collaboration in Speech Language Pathology (APEC SLP)" and "General Assembly Meeting of The Rehabilitation Therapy Branch of Chinese Association of Rehabilitation Medicine 2015". It is expected that professors, therapists, doctors, special education teachers, association members, institution researchers, social workers, and other professionals from the Asia-Pacific areas and beyond will get together and involved in giving lectures, seminars, workshops, panel discussions and presentations on experiences, research results and practice achievements on speech, language and hearing science, as well as planning future development.

Guangzhou is well-known around the world as the modern center of commerce in South China. Besides attending this conference, this trip will give you an ample opportunity to have fun, enjoying its cosmopolitan accommodations, flourishing scenery and delicious cuisine.

We are looking forward to meeting you in Guangzhou!

Yours sincerely,

President of the Asia Pacific Society of Speech, Language and Hearing (APSSLH)
HyangHee "Hope" KIM
